

Junior Material Planner

Are you looking for first professional experience in Logistics/Supply Chain? Discover Electrolux European Supply Chain Centre!

ABOUT US

European Supply Chain Centre created in 2015 currently employs around 130 professionals in different areas of Supply Chain. We are a part of a worldwide Supply Chain organization. Every day our teams coordinate the supply chain for 15 Electrolux factories around the Europe and assure products delivery to all European markets and other countries all over the world.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Ordering components, forecasting settings and release
- Daily assurance of orders coverage and shortages issue management
- Components stock management
- Driving relations with suppliers to make sure that Company needs are in line with suppliers capacities
- Collecting data to support allocation management in case of shortages in accordance to market priorities
- Controlling suppliers' closure calendars, monitor their saturation and support them to improve their delivery performance
- Supporting Material Planning Managers in supplier performance follow up
- Cross-collaborating with different departments and factories

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor/Master degree in Logistics, Science, Economics or other related area
- Previous work or internship experience in logistics/planning will be an asset
- Knowledge of MS Office programs (Excel, Power Point, Word)
- Proficient level of English
- Excellent communication and negotiation skills to be able to build up a network with suppliers and several internal functional areas
- Result oriented, flexible, proactive personality
- Strong analytical skills

WHY ELECTROLUX?

- International work environment, multicultural teams and great atmosphere
- Interesting job and challenging tasks
- Stability of employment and permanent work contract after trial period
- Opportunity to develop your career on local and global level
- Attractive social benefits – private medical care, Multisport Card, life insurance, languages classes, home office possibilities, discount for Electrolux products, local canteen and discount for lunches, etc.